Associate Training Program Statement

To whom it may concern, we hereby declare that Senior Associate Bernardo Pedrete joined the London Office of Baker & McKenzie for six months during 2013, on the Firm's Associate Training Programme (ATP). During this period, the Associate was engaged in some assignments from our Energy, Mining and Infrastructure Practice Group, including in relation to legal analysis on the regulatory framework of oil and gas exploration and production activities; subjects of international and comparative law referred to the oil and gas sector; draft and review of agreements commonly used in the oil and gas sector, such as those following model contracts of the Association of International Petroleum Negotiators - AIPN; draft and review of construction agreements for the supply of drilling units, and draft and review of charter agreements, operation and maintenance (O&M) agreements and services agreements.

Yours sincerely,

Hugh Stewart
